“A Moment in History”

Gary shared information from a detailed 28 page report on the 1838 Old Brick Schoolhouse. His research includes the history, location and pictures, and is based on information from Kate Hoskins, Dewey Trogdon, deeds, property records and various articles. This report will be used as a template to investigate other historical properties.

Old Business:

1. Bruce is editing his article “Race to the Dan” which he submitted for publication in the “Journal of the American Revolution”.
2. The refurbishment of the Charles Bruce cemetery marker is complete.
3. It appears that the Boy Scouts may be working on the repairs for the Bugler Boy monument on Hwy150. The committee is looking in to this.
4. Foundation work is necessary on the railroad toolshop. Chris York is looking into quotes for the work.

New Business:

1. Charles Rodenbough sent an email alerting the committee that the Old Brick Schoolhouse is possibly the first in the state! Rockingham County claims the
